present

Pariah

In conjunction with the exhibition, Nina Chanel Abney: Royal Flush, at the Nasher Museum of Art!

(Dee Rees, 2011, 86 min, USA, in English, Color, Blu-Ray)

17-year-old Alike (pronounced "ah-lee-kay") lives in Brooklyn's Fort Greene neighborhood with her parents and younger sister. Alike is quietly but firmly embracing her identity as a lesbian and is eager to find her first girlfriend, but she wonders how much she can truly confide in her family, especially with her parents' marriage already strained. When Alike's mother presses her to befriend a colleague's daughter, Alike finds her unexpectedly refreshing to socialize with.

"You don't have to be black or lesbian or even know someone who's gay to appreciate Pariah; you just have to have gone through or be going through the process of growing up." - Tom Long, Detroit News

Sponsored by the Nasher Museum of Art and the Program in the Arts of the Moving Image (AMI).
