EYES WIDE SHUT

(Stanley Kubrick, 1999, 159 min, UK/USA, Color, DCP)

Then-couple Tom Cruise and Nicole Kidman star as a New York doctor and art dealer whose stoned admissions of erotic longings throw their marriage into doubt - and lead Cruise to the center of a shadowy sex cult populated by a corrupt and decadent social elite. Twenty years on, Kubrick’s final masterpiece is timelier than ever.

"A spellbinder: provocatively conceived, gorgeously shot and masterfully executed."
